The party will take place in the zoo's:

Please RSVP _____
P.S. This is a GIFTLESS birthday party. We request your presence, not presents! If you would like, the birthday child will be collecting donations to benefit the Utica Zoo. Any contributions to the zoo is greatly appreciated, but is by no means required. We have included a list of items that the staff and animals at the zoo can always use. Thank you!

Thing to remember when attending a Utica Zoo birthday party:

- Balloons and noise-makers are not permitted at the zoo, as they are a potential hazard to the animals; please try not to include them with your gifts.
- When arriving at the zoo, let the gift shop attendant know that you are a party guest, and they will point you in the right direction.
- There is no fee for attending a birthday party!
- All party guests are welcome to explore the zoo before, during and after the party, as long as the zoo is open.
- Please remember that there is no smoking in the zoo; smoking is only permitted in the parking lot.

We hope to see you there!
